Verse 2:

I've been knowing her for years
I've been seeing her for years
She got a dark, dark wavy hair
With a voice like she just don't care
She got a skirt with an halter top
She got a dad who never gave a f***
She drink a beer with her mom til dawn
She got knocked up in a pickup truck
But she got engaged when she was nineteen
To this dude who was acting insane
Had a 45 that he always cleaned
Said one day, one day, one too many days
Now he ducked and she ran away
Never to be heard from, never to be seen
I check the cover of a magazine
I'm just wondering how, just wondering

Chorus (x4)
